

The CBA members should be permitted to contact consumers for reasons concerning business transactions between the bank and the specific consumer. All advertising, solicitation, survey, or other non-related calls should be blocked or outlawed.